INTERNAL EXAM POLICY

Vision

- To continually assess the academic progress of the students and to prepare the internal assessment to be sent to the university.

Objectives

- To conduct a written examination every semester.
- To familiarize the students with the university exam pattern.
- To prepare the students for the university examination.
- To evaluate the papers and to give corrections and suggestions to the students.
- To teach them time management.

Policy

- One of the main criteria for internal assessment is internal exam marks, so due importance is given for conducting internal examinations. Internal examinations are conducted strictly adhering to university exam pattern.
- During the time of the pandemic, internal examinations were conducted online.
- As the online internal examinations were not found effective, in addition to the written internal examinations, oral exams were also conducted.
