Policy for Student Scholarships and Freeships

Vision

- To identify the talented students and to encourage them to excel in academic and extracurricular activities.

Objectives

- To provide financial and academic support for eligible students.

Kuriakose Elias Young Students Support Scheme (KEYSSS) Policy for academic excellence.

The management of Christ Nagar College implemented a scholarship scheme for students who demonstrate a high degree of merit during their academic career and a freeship scheme for all students. It aims to instill academic rigour in students and keep them focussed in their academic endeavours.

1. Eligible students from all programmes will be provided scholarship.

Process

- a. Students can submit an application given from the college office to the Head of the Department.
- b. Heads of the Departments and the class teachers will scrutinize the application based on the student's academic performance and economic background.
- c. The recommendation will be forwarded to the principal and the principal will forward it to the Management for the final approval.
- d. Based on the financial situation of the candidate, the scholarship amount will be decided by the manager.
- e. The sanctioned scholarship amount will be transferred to their respective bank accounts.
- f. If students show exceptional academic improvement, the scholarship amount will be increased.

2. Freeships are provided for the purchasing of academic books, software and other study materials for students from all programmes.

Process

- a. After consulting class teachers, the Head of the Department will submit the requirements regarding freeships to the Principal of the college.
- b. The Principal will scrutinise and will send it to the manager for the final approval.
3. Rank holders and university toppers are granted rewards under KEYSSS.
4. Special allowances are provided for students to participate in cultural and sports events conducted by other institutions.
5. The scholarships will only be available to students who are pursuing different programmes currently.
6. Apart from KEYSSS, no other scholarship/freeships are provided to the students.
7. Management reserves the right to alter the policy every academic year as they see fit.
